

222 West Washington Square

Dear Collier:

What an age it is since I heard from you.
I do hope you have not been ill but such a long silence makes me anxious. Do scratch off a line just to let me know how you are.

Kate's health is still delicate. I cannot but think that does not begin till this date. So, dear Collier, after all I may see you in the flesh. That a pleasure that will be to me, and is very great honour too to take you by the hand.

My last Saturday steamer I send you a copy of my dear which I hope you will kindly accept with my love. Ever faithfully yours

Frederic Howard Sturges that she has been a little better during the past three or four weeks

In desperation the other day I engaged our passage on the 'Gallia' which sails for Liverpool on the 30th of June

I would have gone at once but Kate would not for a minute listen to leaving any of our children at home, and our oldest boys College vacation does
